Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR) sends an email to all students at the start of each semester through the campus listserv.

Additionally, all newly enrolled students are required to complete an online education training program called "Alcohol and Other Drugs" and "Sexual Violence Prevention Training for Undergraduate (or Graduate – recommended) Students" or "Alcohol and Other Drugs (Refresher)" by Vector Solutions. The online education program addresses issues focused on sex in college, healthy relationships, partying smart, sexual violence, and provides resources and links to campus policies including UND's Drug & Alcohol Policy and Sexual Misconduct Policy. All students are also required to review the UND Code of Student Life & Related Policy Notification document annually. This document includes our policies and procedures related to alcohol and other drugs as well as information related to Drug-Free Schools and Federal Student Financial Aid Penalties for Drug Law Violations. Students are tracked using their UND IDM. Students who fail to complete the online training have a hold placed on their student account after the required deadline until the online education is completed or a waiver is granted.

Policies are also posted on the UND website for viewing at any time.
